1 I, Deirdre Aaron, declare as follows:

2 1. I am a partner at Outten & Golden LLP (“O&G”), and together with Laura Ho and
3 Ginger Grimes of Goldstein, Borgen, Dardarian & Ho (“GBDH”) and Paolo Meireles of Shavitz
4 Law Group, P.A., (“SLG”) attorneys for the Plaintiffs in the above-captioned matter (“Class
5 Counsel”). I make these statements based on personal knowledge and would so testify if called as 6 a witness.

7 2. This Declaration is submitted in support of Plaintiffs’ Motion for Attorneys’ Fees
8 and Costs.

9 3. I am a member in good standing of the bar of the State of New York and the 10 Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and am admitted pro hac vice in this matter.

11 I. BACKGROUND & EXPERIENCE OF OUTTEN & GOLDEN

12 4. O&G is the among largest firms in the country that exclusively represents 13 individuals (not companies) in employment matters. O&G is a 50+ attorney firm with offices in 14 New York, San Francisco, and Washington, D.C., representing plaintiffs in a wide variety of 15 employment matters, including individual and class action litigation involving wage and hour,
16 discrimination, and harassment claims, as well as contract and severance negotiations. In addition 17 to taking contingency fee matters, O&G maintains a substantial practice of hourly work for paying 18 clients and often receives fee awards in the cases it handles, giving O&G a solid foundation of 19 resources from which to take on class action matters such as this one.

20 5. O&G’s experience advocating for workers’ rights. O&G has represented plaintiffs 21 in hundreds of class and collective actions asserting employment rights on behalf of workers in 22 California and around the country. For example, one judge recently found that “Class Counsel
23 have capably and effectively represented the Settlement Class Members’ interests,” and praised
24 them for “their outstanding work on this case.” Zamora v. Lyft, Inc., No. 16-cv-02558-VC, ECF
25 No. 103 at 6 (N.D. Cal.). O&G attorneys “have . . . extensive experience and expertise in 26 prosecuting wage-and-hour class actions and collective actions.” Galeener v. Source, No. 13-cv-
27 4960, ECF No. 131 (N.D. Cal. Mar. 13, 2015); Lillehagen v. Alorica, No. 13-cv-0092, ECF No.
28

262 (C.D. Cal. May 31, 2016) (same); Yuzary v. HSBC Bank USA, N.A., No. 12-cv-3693, 2013 WL 1832181, at *4 (S.D.N.Y. Oct. 2, 2013) (finding that O&G attorneys “have substantial experience prosecuting and settling employment class actions, including wage and hour class actions[,] and are well-versed in wage and hour and class action law”); Johnson v. Brennan, No. 10 Civ. 4712, 2011 WL 1872405, at *2 (S.D.N.Y. May 17, 2011) (same); accord Ballinger v. Advance Magazine Publishers, Inc., No. 13 Civ. 4036, 2014 WL 7495092, at *7 (S.D.N.Y. Dec. 29, 2014) (“[b]ased on the firm’s performance before me in this and other cases and its work in the foregoing and other cases, I have no question that it will prosecute the interests of the class vigorously”); Perez v. Allstate Ins. Co., No. 11 Civ. 1812, 2014 WL 4635745, at *25 (E.D.N.Y. Sept. 16, 2014) (“O & G has the requisite experience in handling class actions . . . , are well versed in the applicable law, and have the resources necessary to represent the NYLL Class fairly and adequately”); Capsolas v. Pasta Res., Inc., No. 10 Civ. 5595, 2012 WL 1656920, at *2 (S.D.N.Y. May 9, 2012) (O&G attorneys “have years of experience prosecuting and settling wage and hour class actions, and are well-versed in wage and hour law and in class action law”); Damassia v. Duane Reade, Inc., 250 F.R.D. 152, 158 (S.D.N.Y. 2008) (O&G lawyers have “an established record of competent and successful prosecution of large wage and hour class actions, and the attorneys working on the case are likewise competent and experienced in the area”).

6. O&G’s appointment as class counsel in wage and hour actions. Courts have repeatedly appointed O&G as class counsel in wage and hour class actions. For instance, courts have appointed O&G class counsel in the following wage and hour litigations, among others: Strauch v. Computer Science Corp., 322 F.R.D. 157, 181 n.15 (D. Conn. June 30, 2017) (in wage and hour litigation, finding that O&G “adequately represent[s] the interests of the putative class”), motion to decertify denied, 2017 WL 4683993 (D. Conn. Oct. 18, 2017); Perez v. Allstate Insurance Co., No. 11 Civ. 1812, 2014 WL 4635745, at *25 (E.D.N.Y. Sept. 16, 2014) (appointing O&G as class counsel and noting that “O & G has the requisite experience in handling class actions . . . , are well versed in the applicable law, and have the resources necessary to represent the NYLL Class fairly and adequately”); Jacob v. Duane Reade, Inc., 289 F.R.D. 408,

423 (S.D.N.Y. 2013) (appointing O&G as class counsel in assistant manager misclassification case because it has “experience in handling class actions, sufficient knowledge of the pertinent law, and sufficient resources to commit to this representation”), aff’d, 602 F. App’x 3 (2d Cir. 2015); and Damassia v. Duane Reade, Inc., 250 F.R.D. 152, 165 (S.D.N.Y. 2008) (granting class certification and appointing O&G as class counsel in multi-state wage and hour class action); cf. Houser v. Pritzker, 28 F. Supp. 3d 222, 248, 255 (S.D.N.Y. 2014) (appointing O&G class counsel in nationwide Title VII litigation and noting that O&G “bring[s] to the case a wealth of class action litigation experience”).

7. O&G’s appointment as class counsel in settlement contexts. O&G also has frequently been appointed class counsel in class settlements, including, among others: Pickett v. Simos Insourcing Sols., Corp., 249 F. Supp. 3d 897, 899 (N.D. Ill. 2017) (appointing O&G class counsel); Walsh v. CorePower Yoga LLC, No. 16 Civ. 5610, 2017 WL 589199, at *8 (N.D. Cal. Feb. 14, 2017) (O&G has “a proven track record in the prosecution of class actions as they have successfully litigated and tried many major class action cases”); Long v. HSBC USA Inc., No. 14 Civ. 6233, 2015 WL 5444651, at *9 (S.D.N.Y. Sept. 11, 2015) (O&G attorneys “have appeared in many major [Fair Labor Standards Act (“FLSA”)] and state labor law cases”); Puglisi v. TD Bank, N.A., No. 13 Civ. 637, 2015 WL 574280, at *4 (E.D.N.Y. Feb. 9, 2015) (“O & G has substantial experience prosecuting and settling nationwide wage and hour class and collective actions, and are well-versed in wage and hour law and class action law and are well-qualified to represent the interests of the class.”); Aboud v. Charles Schwab & Co., No. 14 Civ. 2712, 2014 WL 5794655, at *2-4 (S.D.N.Y. Nov. 4, 2014) (certifying class and approving settlement of nationwide wage and hour class and collective action); Zeltser v. Merrill Lynch & Co., No. 13 Civ. 1531, 2014 WL 4816134, at *8 (S.D.N.Y. Sept. 23, 2014) (O&G “are experienced employment lawyers with good reputations among the employment law bar”); Hanifin v. Accurate Inventory & Calculating Service, Inc., No. 11 Civ. 1510, 2014 WL 4352060, at *8 (N.D.N.Y. August 20, 2014) (same); Clem v. KeyBank, N.A., No. 13 Civ. 789, 2014 WL 2895918, at *2-4 (S.D.N.Y. June 20, 2014) (finding O&G adequate counsel, certifying class, and approving settlement of nationwide wage and hour class and collective misclassification action); Yuzary v. HSBC Bank USA, N.A., No. 12 Civ. 3693, 2013 WL 5492998, at *2-4 (S.D.N.Y. Oct. 2, 2013) (certifying class action under the NYLL and appointing O&G as class counsel); Hernandez v. Merrill Lynch & Co., Inc., No. 11 Civ. 8472, 2012 WL 5862749, at *4 (S.D.N.Y. Nov. 15, 2012) (appointing O&G as class counsel, noting the firm's years of experience prosecuting and settling wage and hour class actions); Capsolas v. Pasta Resources Inc., No. 10 Civ. 5595, 2012 WL 1656920, at *2 (S.D.N.Y. May 9, 2012) (certifying class and approving settlement of wage and hour class action); and *Palacio v. E*TRADE Financial Corp.*, No. 10 Civ. 4030, 2012 WL 1058409, at *1-2 (S.D.N.Y. Mar. 12, 2012) (certifying class and approving settlement of wage and hour class action brought under New York, California, and federal law).

8. O&G's experience representing plaintiffs in California state and federal courts.

O&G attorneys have represented plaintiffs asserting employment claims in representative actions in federal and California state courts, including: Borrego v. Raley's Family of Fine Stores, 34-2015-00177687 (Sacramento Co. Super. Ct.) (pregnancy discrimination); Chen v. Morgan Stanley Smith Barney LLC, 30-2014-00724866-CUOE-CJC (Orange Co. Super. Ct.) (PAGA claims on behalf of financial advisors regarding reimbursement of business expenses); Lee v. The Hertz Corp., No. CGC-15-547520 (San Francisco Co. Super. Ct.) (Fair Credit Reporting Act claims based on employment application process); Beilke v. Uber Technologies, Inc., No. CGC-17-560916 (San Francisco Co. Super. Ct.) (claims by drivers for miscalculation of fees contractually owed); Calhoun v. Academy Mortgage Corp. (UT), No. RIC-1811790 (Riverside Co. Super Ct.) (Settlement of Fair Credit Reporting Act claims based on employment application process); Storch v. Carrington Holding Co., No. 34, 2017, 201455-CU, OE, GDS (Sacramento Co. Super. Ct.) ($1,000,000 settlement for overtime misclassification claims on behalf of mortgage loan officers); Gupta v. MGM HD Productions, LLC, No. BC580436 (Los Angeles Super. Ct.) (wage claims for unpaid interns); Whitworth v. SolarCity Corp., No. 16-cv-1540-JSC (N.D. Cal.) (off-the-clock and meal break claims on behalf of installers); Godhigh v Savers, No. 16-cv-2874-WHO (N.D. Cal.) ($750,000 settlement for overtime misclassification claims of retail store assistant managers in 2018); Wolf v. Permanente Medical Group, Inc., No. 17-cv-05345-VC (N.D. Cal.) ($2,950,000 settlement for off-the-clock claims of telephone service representatives in 2018); Zamora v. Lyft, Inc., No. 16-cv-02558-VC (N.D. Cal.) ($1,950,000 settlement for claims of drivers asserting that Lyft used deceptive language in explaining how Prime Time Premiums would be paid to drivers; Lyft eliminated the challenged language during the litigation); Walton v. AT&T Svcs., Inc., No. 15-cv-03653-VC (N.D. Cal.) ($2,750,000 settlement for overtime misclassification claims of deliverers and designers of corporate trainings in 2018); Armstrong v. Concentrix Corp., No. 16-cv-05363-WHO (N.D. Cal.) ($320,000 settlement for off-the-clock claims of at-home customer service representatives in 2018); Brown v. Permanente Medical Group, Inc., No. 16-cv-05272-VC (N.D. Cal.) ($6,255,000 settlement for off-the-clock claims of advice nurses in 2017); Zajonc v. Morgan Stanley & Co. LLC, No. 14 Civ. 5563 (N.D. Cal.) ($5,995,000 settlement as part of multi-case settlement) (Final Analyst trainee off-the-clock wage and hour claims); Buccellato v. AT&T, Inc., No. 10 Civ. 463 LHK (N.D. Cal.) ($12.5 million settlement of overtime misclassification claims for technical support workers in 2011); Lillehagen v. Alorica, Inc., No. 13 Civ. 92 (C.D. Cal.) (nationwide class action settlement) (call center worker off-the-clock claims).

II. THE REQUESTED FEE IS REASONABLE BASED ON THE RESULTS ACHIEVED AND CONTINGENT RISK

9. Based on my experience litigating employment class actions and knowledge of settlements and verdicts in other similar cases, I believe that the proposed Settlement represents an appropriate monetary result for the Settlement Class and Collective Members, particularly in light of the risks of continued litigation, and is in the best interests of the Settlement Class and Collective Members.

10. In addition, the fee request is supported by the fact that O&G undertook the financial risk and burden of prosecuting this case on a contingency basis. This matter has required O&G to expend substantial time that could have been spent on other fee-generating matters. We took this matter on a pure contingency basis, expending this effort without any guarantee of recovery. At various times, the litigation has consumed a significant amount of our time.

11. Because we often decline to represent workers with valid legal claims – who might pay hourly or retain us on a contingency basis – there is a significant opportunity cost to each class action we pursue. O&G undertook representation of Plaintiffs in this action without any assurance of payment for its services, litigating the case on a wholly contingent basis in the face of significant risk. Class cases of this type are, by their very nature, complicated and time-consuming. Any lawyer undertaking representation of large numbers of affected employees in class actions inevitably must be prepared to make a tremendous investment of time, energy, and resources. Sometimes these cases result in a recovery for the class, and sometimes they do not, in which case we are paid nothing for our time and costs incurred. O&G’s commitment to this case precluded the firm from accepting other profitable or otherwise worthwhile cases, both because of the number of hours this case required and because O&G needed to ensure adequate resources to litigate the case if the case had not settled. Committing resources to this case necessitated turning down hourly-paying clients as well as other contingency cases.

12. For example, we have invested millions of dollars of time and hundreds of thousands of dollars of expenses without being compensated for our time or out-of-pocket costs. See, e.g., Benedict v. Hewlett-Packard Co., No. 13-cv-119-BLF (N.D. Cal.) (overtime misclassification claims on behalf of technical support workers); Winans v. Starbucks Corp., 796 F. Supp. 2d 515 (S.D.N.Y. 2011) (tip pool violation claims on behalf of baristas); Pippins v. KPMG LLP, No. 11 Civ. 377, 2012 WL 6968332 (S.D.N.Y. Nov. 30, 2012) (overtime misclassification claims on behalf of auditors).

13. In addition, Plaintiffs’ Counsel’s retainer agreements with Plaintiffs allowed for a one-third contingency fee arrangement.

III. THE REQUESTED FEE IS REASONABLE UNDER THE LODESTAR CROSS CHECK

14. As a cross-check on the requested percentage-of-the-fund award, O&G’s lodestar confirms the appropriateness of the requested fee.

1 A. O&G’S REASONABLE HOURLY RATES

2 15. O&G ordinarily and regularly bills clients on an hourly fee basis, based on each
3 attorney’s standard hourly rate. O&G’s rates range from $550 to $1,300 per partner’s hour, $675
4 to $925 per counsel’s hour, $300 to $550 per associate’s hour, $250 per law clerk’s hour, and
5 $270 to $290 per paralegal’s hour. My current hourly rate is $600 per hour. The firm’s clients
6 regularly accept and pay O&G’s hourly rates.

7 16. These rates are my firm’s current billing rates and are supported by the extensive
8 and specialized experience in these types of cases and recognized expertise described. Our rate
9 structure has been approved by other courts and has been paid to our firm by hourly-paying
10 clients. See e.g., del Toro Lopez v. Uber Techs., Inc., No. 17 Civ. 06255, 2018 WL 5982506, at *4 11 (N.D. Cal. Nov. 14, 2018) (“Class Counsel’s hourly rates, ranging from $250 to $850 for 12 attorneys, are reasonable in light of the market for legal services of this type and quality.”);
13 Zamora v. Lyft, Inc., No. 16 Civ. 2558, 2018 WL 4657308, at *3 (N.D. Cal. Sept. 26, 2018)
14 (“Class Counsel’s hourly rates, ranging from $240 to $260 for staff and $280 to $850 for 15 attorneys, are reasonable in light of the market for legal services of this type and quality.”).

16 17. I have personal knowledge of the hourly rates charged by other attorneys with 17 comparable experience as well as to the attorneys within the firm who worked on this matter.
18 Based on that information, I believe that these rates are fully consistent with, if not lower than, the 19 market rate in San Francisco for attorneys with comparable expertise, experience and 20 qualifications, and that they are comparable to rates of attorneys specializing in complex litigation
21 around the country. Based on the information I have, I believe that the rates charged by O&G for 22 its partner and non-partner attorney time are reasonable and appropriate fees for those with 23 comparable expertise, experience, and qualifications.

24 18. I am a partner in O&G’s Class Action Practice Group. Since joining the firm in 25 September 2012, I have been engaged primarily in prosecuting wage and hour class and collective 26 actions and class action discrimination cases.
27
28

1 19. Recent representative cases I have litigated include Kis v. Covelli, No. 18 Civ. 54
 2 (N.D. Ohio May 29, 2020) ($4.625 million settlement on behalf of Panera café assistant managers
 3 in overtime misclassification case); Ratcliffe v. Food Lion, No. 18 Civ. 1177 (M.D. Tenn. Oct. 15,
 4 2020) ($550,000 settlement on behalf of grocery store assistant managers in overtime
 5 misclassification case); and Rotondo v. J.P. Morgan Chase Bank N.A., No. 19 Civ. 2328 (S.D.
 6 Ohio Dec. 2, 2019) ($5 million settlement on behalf of fathers denied paid parental leave).

7 20. I received a Juris Doctor degree, magna cum laude and Order of the Coif, from 8 Washington University in St. Louis in 2010. I received my B.A. from Northwestern University in 9 2004.

10 21. Prior to joining O&G, I worked as a Staff Attorney for the U.S. Court of Appeals for 11 the Eighth Circuit from August 2010 to August 2012.

12 22. I was admitted to the New York State Bar in 2011, and the Bar of the 13 Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in 2016. I am also admitted to the bars of the U.S. District
 14 Courts for the Eastern and Southern Districts of New York, the Eastern District of Pennsylvania, 15 and the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit. I am a member in good standing of each of 16 these bars.

17 23. I am a member of the American Bar Association Section on Labor and Employment
 18 Law's Federal Labor Standards Legislation Committee and a chapter editor for the committee's
 19 Fair Labor Standards Act ("FLSA") Midwinter Report, a member of the National Employment
 20 Lawyers Association ("NELA"), and board member of NELA's Eastern Pennsylvania Chapter.

21 24. I have been selected as a Rising Star by Super Lawyers from 2016-2021, was 22 selected for Best Lawyers: Ones to Watch for 2021, and received Public Justice's Trial Lawyer of 23 the Year Award in 2017 for my work on Gonzalez v. Pritzker, a class action challenging the U.S.
 24 Census Bureau's criminal background check policy.

25 25. Justin M. Swartz is a Partner and Co-Chair of the firm's Class Action Practice
 26 Group and its LGBT Employment Rights Practice Group. He has represented thousands of low-
 27 wage workers, including restaurant workers, and frequently co-counsels with non-profit 28

1 organizations in doing so. He is a frequent speaker on employment law topics and has contributed
 2 to two ABA/BNA treatises, The Fair Labor Standards Act and Employment Discrimination Law.
 3 He is active in bar associations including the American Bar Association Section of Labor and 4 Employment Law where he is Co-Chair of the Section's CLE/Institutes and Meetings Committee,
 5 Co-Chair of the Committee on Equal Employment Opportunity Law, and is a former Co-Chair of 6 the Ethics and Professional Responsibility Committee. Prior to joining O&G in December 2003,
 7 he graduated from DePaul University School of Law with honors in 1998.

8 26. Sally J. Abrahamson was a Partner at O&G in Washington, DC until October 2020,
 9 and co-Chair of the Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender & Queer (LGBTQ) Workplace Rights
 10 Practice Group and a member of the firm's Class Action Practice Group. Prior to joining O&G in 11 September 2012, she worked as law clerk to the Honorable Frank Montalvo of the U.S. District
 12 Court in the Western District of Texas, El Paso Division and later as the Bilingual Staff Attorney
 13 at D.C. Employment Justice Center. She received her B.A. from Oberlin College in 2003 and her
 14 J.D., with honors, from American University's Washington College of Law in 2009.

15 27. Pamela A. Disney was an Associate at O&G and a member of the firm's Class
 16 Action Practice Group from September 2017 to February 2020. Prior to joining the firm, Ms.
 17 Disney was a Fellow with the Lawyers' Committee for Civil Rights Under Law where she 18 litigated voting rights cases and worked on employment discrimination matters. She received her
 19 B.A., cum laude, from Trinity University in San Antonio and her J.D., cum laude, from American 20 University Washington College of Law, where she was a Public Interest Public Service Scholar.

21 28. Molly J. Frandsen is an associate at O&G and a member of the firm's Class Action
 22 Practice Group. Prior to joining the firm, Ms. Frandsen clerked for the Honorable Chief Justice
 23 Mark Recktenwald of the Hawaii State Supreme Court. She received her B.A. from the 24 University of California, Santa Barbara in 2011, and her J.D. from the University of California, 25 Berkeley School of Law in 2017.

26 29. Emily Abelow is a Case Analyst at O&G. Ms. Abelow joined O&G in August 27 2021.

30. Christopher Alter was an e-Discovery Specialist at O&G from September 2016 to August 2020. Mr. Alter joined O&G in September 2016 initially as a Litigation Paralegal and later as an e-Discovery Administrator and subsequently e-Discovery Specialist.

31. Lynsey Major was a paralegal at O&G from July 2015 to July 2021.

32. Sara Olson is a Special Projects Coordinator at O&G. Prior to her current position, she joined O&G in May 2016 as a paralegal.

33. Rania Tootla is a paralegal at O&G. Miss Tootla joined O&G in June 2018.

34. Christopher Truong is a paralegal at O&G. Mr. Truong joined O&G in September 2016.

35. Stephanie Yu was Paralegal Coordinator and a paralegal at O&G from September 2017 to March 2020.

B. O&G'S REASONABLE TIME SPENT AND NATURE OF ITS REPRESENTATION OF THE CLASS AND COLLECTIVES

36. All attorneys and legal staff at O&G are instructed to maintain contemporaneous time records reflecting the time spent on this and other matters. In all instances, the time keeper indicates the date and amount of time spent on a task to one-tenth of an hour; describes the work that was performed during the indicated time period; and identifies the case to which the time should be charged. Attached as Exhibit A is a spreadsheet of O&G's detailed time records for this case listed in chronological order. The names of non-Plaintiff/Opt-in Plaintiff employee witnesses have been redacted from these records to protect their privacy.

37. As of October 15, 2021, O&G has devoted approximately 1,509.9 attorney and support staff hours litigating and settling this case, with work still continuing. The firm's total lodestar for these hours amounts to $699,404.50. However, O&G has also applied an across-the-board discount of 5%. O&G's final lodestar is thus $664,434.28.

38. This figure will increase in the coming months, due to additional work performed by O&G for the benefit of the Settlement Class and Collective Members—including, securing final approval of the settlement, overseeing the Settlement Administrator's implementation of the mechanics of the settlement, and assisting Settlement Class and Collective Members with questions during and after the settlement process.

39. A summary of hours expended by O&G's timekeepers through October 15, 2021 is as follows:

	Hours	Fees

Staff	311.1	$82,821.00

3 40. At all times, O&G used a small team of core attorneys and paralegals in order to 4 minimize duplication of efforts and maximize billing judgment, and made every effort to have the 5 work performed by the attorney or paralegal with the lowest hourly rate who was able to perform
6 it effectively.

7 41. In addition, O&G exercised billing judgment by conducting an extensive review of 8 our contemporaneous time records in preparation for this application. In addition, O&G made 9 judicious cuts for any potentially duplicative work, de minimis time billed by attorneys and staff
10 who had little participation in the action (i.e., O&G proactively removed any attorneys or staff 11 who worked less than five hours on this matter), and other similar subtractions based on an 12 exercise of billing judgment. Not counting the across-the-board reduction or the time removed by 13 billers who worked less than ten hours on this matter, O&G additionally removed over 100 hours
14 of time and over $35,000 in lodestar.

15 42. The hours O&G billed were properly and necessarily spent on the firm's assigned 16 tasks and projects. The following summarizes the approximate hours O&G spent on each phase of 17 litigation:

18 43. O&G spent around 8.9 hours investigating Plaintiff Seltz's claims, including 19 interviewing Plaintiff Seltz and other potential witnesses, reviewing his employment records,
20 conducting legal and company research, and drafting the initial demand letter.

21 44. Plaintiff Seltz and Cushman thereafter agreed to toll the FLSA and state law statutes
22 of limitations for putative class and collective members as of December 2017, and ultimately
23 engaged in private mediation in July 2018. In preparation for the mediation, O&G and Shavitz
24 Law Group ("SLG") (together, "Counsel for Seltz") performed legal research and review of 25 mediation discovery to draft a mediation statement, negotiated the mediation data exchange, and 26 computed a damages model without incurring the expense of retaining a damages expert. Counsel
27

1 for Seltz also drafted and filed the state court complaint in advance of mediation. O&G spent
2 about 161.8 hours on this phase of the case.

3 45. After initial mediation was unsuccessful, Plaintiffs Seltz and Cushman engaged in 4 early discovery and initial case management, including negotiating the case scheduling order, and 5 preparing and serving initial disclosures and discovery requests. O&G spent about 99.2 hours on 6 this phase of litigation.

7 46. In November 2018, the parties in Seltz and Dixon agreed to stayed the cases pending
8 mediation. In preparation for the June 2019 joint mediation, O&G performed legal research and 9 review of mediation discovery to draft sections of the mediation statement, negotiated the 10 mediation data exchange, and worked with SLG to analyze and compute a damages model without 11 incurring the expense of retaining a damages expert. O&G spent about 110.8 hours on this this 12 phase of the case.

13 47. After mediation was unsuccessful, litigation and discovery continued. In this phase
14 of the case, Counsel for Seltz responded to discovery requests and produced documents, and 15 reviewed document productions from Cushman. O&G also drafted and filed a 216(b) motion with 16 detailed exhibits, including several declarations O&G collected from individuals who had been 17 employed by Cushman as Junior Appraisers.¹ Cushman decided not to oppose the motion, and 18 Counsel for Seltz negotiated a 216(b) notice stipulation. O&G spent approximately 756.7 hours
19 on this phase of the case.

20 48. In October of 2020, the parties in both the Seltz and Dixon matters resumed
21 settlement discussions and agreed to mediation. During this phase of the case, O&G and SLG
22 negotiated the mediation data exchange, contributed to the damages calculations, and O&G took 23 the lead in drafting the mediation statement. O&G also spent time on 216(b) notice
24 administration, including communicating with opt-ins and potential opt-ins. O&G spent 25 approximately 120.9 hours on this phase of the case.

27 ¹ Although Plaintiff Seltz's complaint pled a collective including both Junior Appraisers and 28 Appraisers, the motion for conditional certification only sought certification of a collective of Junior Appraisers.

49. Following the March 11, 2021 mediation, O&G prepared the initial draft of the long form settlement agreement and the settlement notices, and both O&G and SLG participated in negotiating the long form settlement agreement and related documents. O&G contributed research, and revisions to the amended complaint and motion for preliminary approval, and drafted sections of the supplemental briefing in support of the preliminary approval motion. O&G and SLG also prepared detailed declarations in support of the briefing. O&G spent approximately 232 hours on this phase of the case.

50. Since the Court preliminary approved the settlement, O&G has spent time on notice administration and preparing the attorneys' fee application. O&G spent approximately 19.6 hours on this phase of litigation.

51. The three law firms will be splitting fees pro-rata by lodestar.

IV. THE LITIGATION EXPENSES WERE REASONABLY INCURRED

52. O&G maintains all records regarding costs expended on each case. I have reviewed the records of costs expended in this matter. As of the date of October 15, 2021, which does not yet account for additional costs to be incurred in the course of the final approval process and any other costs arising during the settlement check distribution process, O&G has incurred $30,658.36 in litigation costs and expenses. The costs and expenses identified below in an itemized summary based on each category of costs are reflected in the accounting books and records GBDH maintains in the ordinary course of business. These costs include:

Outten & Golden LLP Costs Summary
Categories	Costs
Court Fees/Filing Fees/Service Fees	$1,340.19
Document Management	$1,056.82
In-House Postage	$174.41

Telephone	$10.76
Travel - airline/car/mileage/taxi/gas	$6,668.36

Website Design/Hosting Cost	$336.99
Grand Total	$30,658.36

53. I have reviewed the billing and expense records described above and certify to the Court that the work was reasonably and necessarily performed and expenses reasonably and necessarily incurred in connection with the litigation of this matter.
